Teacher: Patrice Kelly  November 6, 2019, 12:30 to 3:00  Wet felting wool is a centuries old craft used to make everything from tents to clothing. The process combines layers of wool roving into one flat piece of felt fabric. After learning a brief history of different types of felting and roving, participants create an original felted bird species. Felting birds is a tactile and engaging experience. Teachers will gain insight and inspiration to share with students of all ages and abilities. The process will promote creativity, imagination, and excite teachers to explore this unique art form. Teacher: Esther Maschio  January 8, 2020, 12:30 to 3:00  In this Printmaking Workshop teachers will work with Gelli (gelatine) Plates, Acrylic paints, and a variety of thin (drawing weight) papers. Additive and subtractive techniques, color mixing, use of stencils, overprinting, and registration for multiple layering of color will be explored. Prints work up quickly and dry quickly. As time allows, rich creative collage art can be made from some of the prints done in this class. All materials will be provided but to personalize your work, you are welcome to bring any favorite materials for use in mark making on plates and for collage. Teacher: Donna Rossetti-Bailey  March 2, 2020, 12:30 to 3:00  Students begin by reviewing pastel basics	Departments will meet at the discretion of the department chairperson on the first or fourth Wednesday of each month that school is in session. Attendance at department meetings is mandatory. October 2, 3pm @ HMS  November 6, 12:15-12:30*  December 4, 3pm @ Hingham Library  January 8, 12:15-12:30*  February 5, 3pm  March 3, 12:15-12:30*  April 1, 3pm  May 6, 3pm  June 3, 3pm @Greg's Barn	January  Hingham Public Library April 27-May 1  Advanced Show in 103 April 30  K-12 Showcase in HHS Cafe

including discussion of the different types of pastels, the many different surfaces, and techniques available for pastel painting. Students will receive a lot of instruction on their process. As an experienced teacher, who taught in schools for over 20 years, Donna will guide teachers on ways these techniques and projects can be integrated into their own classrooms.
